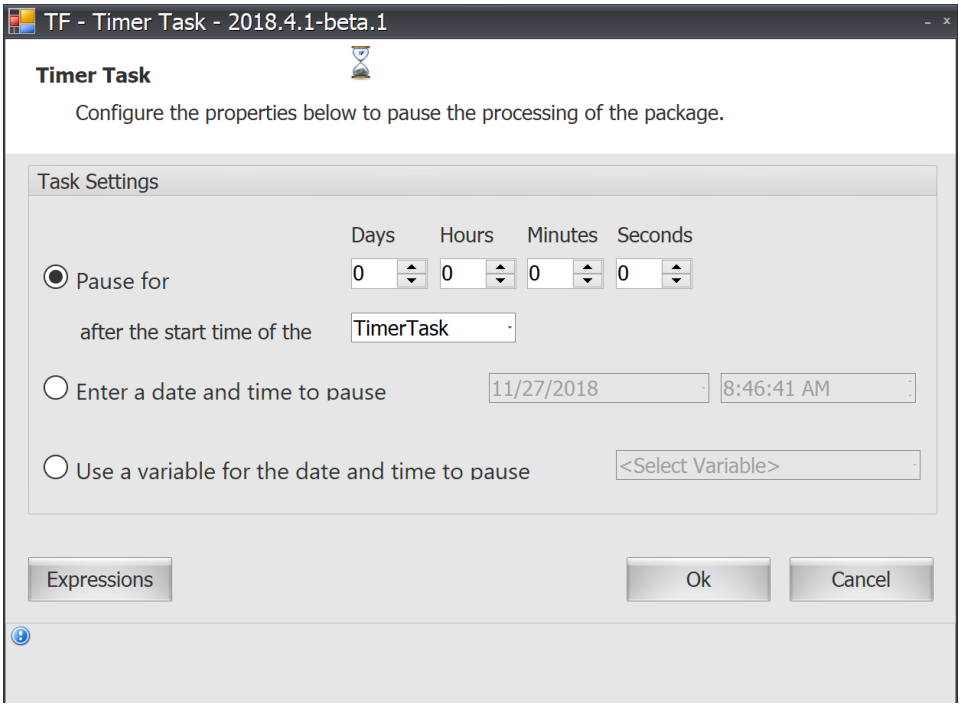
Task Factory Timer

Last Modified on 28 September 2020

Timer Task

Task Icon	Task Description
	The Timer Task gives users the ability to configure a timer (delay) before beginning package execution. The component can also be used to add a delay between control flow tasks.



Option	Description
Pause for	The time to set the delay.
After the start time of the	Selection for Timer Task or Package. • Selecting Package delays execution of the package for the configured time. • Selecting Timer Task delays the control flow stream for the specified time when it reaches this component.
Enter a date and time to pause until:	Users can enter a specific date and time to delay a package or control flow.
Use a variable for the date and time to pause until Option	Users can dynamically set a delay by using a variable. Description